Oh, do Not Grieve, Sad Mother.

[The following beautiful and touching lines were written several years ago, and sent to a bereaved mother, a very dear friend of the author, and are now published by request.]
Oh, grieve not, sad mother, that Maggie now lies.
With pale folded hands and softly closed eyes,
So peaceful, so holy, so calm her repose,
Her young spirit passed like perfume from a rose.
The parting most fearful, most painful to thee,
But opened the prison, and Maggie is free.
Would you fete a bird, ready plumed for its flight?
Would you crush a bright flower, when pining for light?
Would you sever the harp-strings attuned for the band
Of angels, who dwell in that beautiful land?
Oh, lay the fair casket beneath the green sod,
For the jewel is safe in the bosom of God.
And when our kind Father, who chastes in love,
Shall beckon you softly to mansions above,
As you speed your bright way, on earth's chequered shore,
One tie will be less, and in heaven one more.
As we mingle our tears with thine, fond mother, feel
That the Hand, while it wounds, has done all things well.

A Kentucky Giant and his Wife.

[Rochester Express.]

There is on exhibition in a store on State street, in this city, perhaps the most remarkable couple in the world—a man and woman who are giants in stature. They are Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Bates, whose home is now in Seville, Medina county Ohio. They are both six feet eleven and a half inches in height, the husband weighing 478 pounds, while the wife weighs 413 pounds. The common-sized visitor, when placed between them, feels very much as Gulliver must have done when he fell among the giants. Mr. or Captain Bates, as he is called, is quite a finely proportioned man, of ruddy, healthy-looking complexion, straight and military-looking in his regimentals. His immense stature is not so noticeable as that of his wife, who seems almost awkward on account of her length, she being actually taller for a woman than he for a man. They are evidently people who, if not so wonderfully tall, would be considered commonplace. They are intelligent, however, and the lady especially feels the awkwardness of her position as the object of the curiosity and the open-mouth wonder of the multitude. In an interesting conversation with our reporter she showed openly her dislike of the life she is leading and her longing to return to her home in Ohio. Their home, by the way, was one built especially for them. The ceilings are 12½ feet high, and no doors are less than 8½ feet high. Of course they find the hotel accommodations unsuitable to them wherever they go, as the doorways are so low and the beds so short. One of the strangest facts about their history is that they were the children of common people. Mrs. Bates' father was only five feet four inches in height, while her mother was only a common-sized woman. Her brothers and sisters are of no remarkable height. Captain Bates' father was six feet two inches in height—a tall man, but a dwarf compared with his son. Bates is now twenty-nine years of age.—He is a native of Letcher county, Ky.—His wife is a Nova Scotian, twenty-seven years of age. They were married in Bondon, England, while traveling in that country on exhibition.

A Warning to Girls Who Want to Wear Breaches.

Doctor Mary Walker was parading the streets of Washington, the other day, with the usual crowd of boys straggling after her crying, "See them pants." "Oh, here's fun!" Feeling thirsty, the doctor passed into a house and asked a couple of girls for a drink of water. The girls at first screamed, thinking that the doctor was a man. The doctor reassured them, and repeated her request for water.—The girls were so over overcome with giggling that they could do nothing but direct the doctor to the pump in the yard, forgetting the presence of a large Newfoundland dog. Mary tripped out to the pump and bent over to get a drink. No sooner did the dog spy the strange creature in the yard than he nabbled, after the fashion of all dogs, at the angle of the bend. The figure strengthened up very suddenly, and there was some screaming and struggling. A good deal of damage was done to the pants, and the dog was finally made to relinquish his hold. It is hoped that this will be a terrible warning to any giddy girl like the doctor who may fancy that she would look well in breeches.—[Boston Post.

ACCORDING to a well known physician, "It is dangerous to go into the water after a hearty meal." And it would be a very fishy one a man would get if he did go in after one.

THE latest piece of enterprise accredited to the potatoe bug is that he was seen recently squatted on a piece of celandine and navigating gaily down Clack River, N. Y.

"JOHN," said Mrs. Smith, "don't you think a newspaper reporter has a rather low calling, since he goes about poking his nose in everybody's business?" "Well," replied Mr. Smith, "I believe it is a sort of localizing."

GEORGE ELIOT says that a young man's eyes first open to the world when he is in love. This is not always so. Usually it is when he has gone away from home and had his washing sent out for the first time, and finds among it when it is returned an odd stocking with two red stripes about the top, and long enough to button around his neck.

Gen. Geo. B. McClellan Comes out for Tilden and Reform.

COBURG, CANADA, Aug. 16, '78

My dear Sir: Your very kind letter of the 18th has reached me, and I quite concur with you.

Deeply impressed by the gravity of the issues involved in the approaching Presidential election, believing that the honor of the country and the well being of the people depend in no small degree upon the result, I feel compelled to depart from the reserve that has become habitual with me, and express the earnest convictions that press upon me.

Under a constitutional government the formation of political parties is a necessary consequence of the diversity of human minds and interests. Sentimentalists in their closets may dream of an ideal Republic, all of whose citizens are perfectly wise, virtuous and, consequently, unanimous; but such a dream can never be realized on this earth, and we must recognize the fact that political parties are not only necessary, but beneficial, acting as they do as checks upon each other. Experience has shown, in all constitutional countries, that when any party possesses uninterrupted power for a very long time, especially when the minority is too weak to interpose any efficient check upon the actions of the majority, the tendency is that the leaders become careless and reckless, forget that there is any power to which they are responsible, look upon office as a personal possession and reward, rather than a public trust, and learn to regard their tenure as permanent. So, too, the legislative bodies become inclined to a system of extravagance, which engenders corruption, facilitates the formation of rings, and finally destroys the prosperity of the people.

The only sure remedy in such a case, is that the people shall, through the ballot-box, place the former apposition in power.

That our country is now in the condition described is proved by the universal and peremptory demand for complete reform by the people, without regard to party.

Among Democrats there is no doubt as to the manner in which the change should be accomplished.

With many Republicans the question is whether they can trust the professions of their party, or whether they must take the disagreeable step of breaking away from old political associations, by leaving the party under whose administration all the evils of which they complain have grown up, and act with the Democrats, who, from the force of circumstances, must necessarily be reformers.

I have the highest respects for the personal character and intelligence of the Republican candidate for the Presidency, and believe him to be an upright gentleman; but it seems to me quite impossible that he can change the organization and policy of his party.

The leaders who control and shape its policy would be the same after his election as now, and it is idle to hope for any change in them, or under them.

It is now abundantly evident that had not a Democratic House been elected in 1874, it would have been impossible to unearth the various instances of maladministration that have come to light, and it is equally clear that until the Government passes into the hands of the Democrats, we shall never know the whole truth, whatever it may be; and we need to know the truth as to the past, that it may serve to guide us in the future.

Believing, as I firmly do, that every consideration of honesty and sound statesmanship, every true national and individual interest, demands the prompt inauguration of a policy which shall, in the briefest practicable time, reduce every governmental expenditure to the lowest point commensurate with honor and efficiency; regarding the reform of the civil service in its broadest sense, and with it the enforcement upon office-holders of the conviction that their only business is to perform their public duties, and not to manipulate party politics, as an inherent part of this reform; satisfied that it must be accompanied by financial measures steadily directed towards the resumption of specie payments within the shortest possible period, I cannot for a moment doubt that these all-important ends will be best, and in fact only, attained by the election of the candidate of the Democratic party.

But questions of finance and reform are not the only ones which effect our present and future.

The recent war settled forever certain vexed questions; for example the asserted right of secession has disappeared in a sea of blood; slavery has been abolished, never to reappear; to the negro has been given the rights of citizenship and suffrage. We have nothing more to do with these results, save to accept them frankly, and watch that they remain intact. After many trials and tribulations, the States not long since arrayed in arms against the general Government, have re-established their relations with the Union, and regained their autonomy.

Generous courtesy toward a fallen, but most gallant foe, and selfish policy, alike demand that we should leave no just thing undone that will restore peace and well-being to the South, re-establish fraternal feelings in the hearts of all our people, and cause our recent enemies to be proud of and love the Government of the Union and its flag. The welfare of the North is inseparable from that of the South, and our country can never attain its full force and vigor until peace, prosperity and kind feeling reign throughout its broad domain.

I believe that this end can best be reached by respecting the autonomy of the individual States, so long as they respect the obligations of the Federal compact.

Allowed to govern themselves, public opinion, self-respect and a regard for their own interests will certainly suffice and to induce the Southern States to place good men in office and to enforce the laws. While of the opinion that Federal interference should never be resorted to, except in the cases provided for the Constitution, I also think that, if any outrages are committed upon the rights, persons or property of any citizen, whatever his race, whether white or black, and the State authorities neglect or hesitate to do their duty, the General Government should urge and aid them in every legal way to enforce order and justice, and should use all its legitimate influence in that direction.

But I have sufficient faith in the honor and ability of our Southern brethren to believe that, when left to themselves, they will well know how to enforce just laws, and secure the rights of the humblest of their fellow citizens.

In Mr. Tilden I am confident that we have a candidate possessing all the requisites that the exigencies of the times demand. In a long career he has given the surest proofs of ability and integrity. It is a very easy thing to preach reform to an opponent, but a very different affair to carry it out in one's own party.

This, Mr. Tilden has had the courage and ability to do. Against great obstacles he commenced and carried through the Herculean task of fighting corruption and pursuing the plunderers in his own party, and it is almost superfluous to say that the courage, energy, untiring perseverance and acumen he displayed in those memorable contests, prove that he possesses in a most eminent degree the qualities so much needed in our Chief Magistrate in the present crisis of our affairs.

In regard to all questions of finance and reform we have the sure criterion of his past to enable us to form positive convictions as to his future.

In his hands may be safely left the task of awarding liberal justice to the South, while jealously guarding the rights of the North, and the issues decided by the great struggle ended, I trust and believe, forever.

When elected I believe that he will enter upon the duties of his high office with the single purpose of serving his country faithfully, and with no lower ambition than that of devoting every faculty to the glorious task of rendering the nation prosperous at home, honored and respected abroad. I would like to appeal to those who in civil life have honored me with their friendship and support, and especially and most earnestly to those men to whom I have appealed in vain—my comrades of the war—and to ask them to stand once more with me in our country's cause, in a civil contest now, as formerly in a deadlier struggle, and support to the uttermost the election of Mr. Tilden to the Presidency.

I believe that the issues now at stake are similar to those for which we fought—the honor and well-being of the nation.

I am very truly yours,
Geo. B. McClellan.

Democratic Meeting in Muhlenburg County.

In obedience to a call of the Democratic County Committee, a large and enthusiastic meeting assembled in Greenville, on Monday, August 28, 1876, (County court,) to select delegate to attend the Convention of the Democratic party called by the Democratic Committee of this the Second Congressional District, to meet at Seabee City on the 7th day of September, 1876.

On motion, B. F. Patterson Esq. was selected Chairman and R. E. Glenn Secretary.

The objects of the meeting being explained by the chairman, L. P. Love offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we approve the action of the Democratic Committee of the Second Congressional District of Kentucky, in calling a convention to meet at Seabee City, on the 7th of September, 1876, and hereby pledge ourselves to support the nominee of that convention, and to use every exertion to secure his election in November next.

2. That we endorse the course of the Hon. John Young Brown, our present worthy and efficient representative in Congress, and hereby extend to him our thanks and grateful acknowledgments for his faithful and efficient services, and for the statesmanlike manner with which he has discharged the responsible duties incumbent upon him as such representative.

3. That all Democrats of Muhlenburg county, who can and will attend, be and they are hereby appointed to represent the Democracy of this county in said convention, and are authorized to cast the vote to which she is entitled in said convention.

4. That the delegates from this county are instructed to cast the vote of the county, as a unit, upon all questions that may arise in the convention, a majority of the delegates to control.

5. That the Hon. James A. McKenzie, of the county of Christian, is the choice of the Democracy of this county for representative in the Forty-Fifth Congress, and that we, in convention assembled, recognize in him, a gentleman of untarnished personal and political honor, undoubted ability and integrity, and we do hereby instruct our delegates to said convention to cast the solid vote of Muhlenburg county for him in the convention to be held in Seabee City on the 7th day of September next.

On motion, the resolutions were adopted with but two dissenting voices.

On motion, the Secretary was requested to furnish a copy of the proceedings of the meeting to the Monitor, Owensboro, HARTFORD HERALD and Hopkinsville New Era, with a request to publish.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.
B. E. PITTMAN, Chair'n.
R. E. GLENN, Secretary.

What Was Found in an Old Trunk.

A citizen of Hickory county, Mo., last week met with a singular piece of good fortune. While at Kansas City, in September, 1869, he purchased an old trunk, advertised as 'unclaimed property,' by the United States Express Company, which proved to contain only some valueless articles and dirty clothing. On his arrival home the trunk was converted into a receptacle for wood, for which purpose it was used till a week since, when being partially demolished, it was converted into kindling wood. Between the wood and zinc bottom was found $3,085. The trunk bore no marks to indicate who the owner might have been, and the reasonable supposition is that it was shipped to some fictitious name, and contained stolen money, which, either by interference of arrest, or from fears of detection, remained unclaimed for.

An Awful Man.

When quite a youth Governor Tilden wrecked a railroad, roasted and ate his grandmother, aided Arnold to desert to the British, and, if elected president, will marry Dr. Mary Walker and re-enslave the Chicago Hannibal Souaves.—[Chicago Times.

ALL THE printers' ink and the very best efforts of the most scientific liars in the country cannot blot out Samuel J. Tilden's record as an honest statesman.

DEMOCRATIC REFORM TICKET

FOR PRESIDENT,
SAMUEL J. TILDEN,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
THOMAS A. HENDRICKS,
OF INDIANA.

The Best Bargain Yet.

We will send the HERALD to any address from now to the first of January, 1877, for 50 cents. Subscribe at once and get the benefit of all the time.

THE Democratic State Central Committee have appointed our esteemed fellow citizen, Prof. W. B. Hayward, assistant editor for the State at large. We think the honor worthily bestowed.

WE must reform the Republican party from within—Gen. Wm. Curtis. Certainly, and we suppose the President's recent visit to Deer Park was the first step taken in that direction.

THE difference lies just here, Hayes tells what he will not do, and Tilden tells what he will do. The one is an equivocation—the other is a pledge.

WE rejoice in the quickened conscience of the people.—Cin. Platform.—A bloody shirt campaign with money, and Indiana is safe.—Rider Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes.

HONESTY and efficiency should be the true tests for appointment to office, and not political activity.—Grant's letter of 1872.—Were Brewster, Jewell, Fraite, Yarran and Dyer dishonest or inefficient?

I HAVE been led to believe that you were in that Bristow movement.—President Grant to Wm. Cassius Goodloe. Remove Goodloe and appoint Pratt to the Lexington Ky., Pension Agency. President Grant to Secretary Chandler.

WE recommend the removal of Collector Casey at New Orleans.—Congressional Committee of four years ago.—Collector Casey yet fills his office of collector and fills the nominating conventions with his henchmen to prolong the Grant regime in Louisiana.

THE Republican administrations have had so many questions of higher importance to deal with, that they have not had the time to bestow upon civil service reform that they would have liked, meanwhile, the evil has grown.—Gen. Bristow in Vermont. Oh, yes, too busy dispersing the Louisiana Legislature, and securing to certain States a Republican form of government, too busy with San Domingo jobs, too busy with Steinbarger and the Samoan Islands, too busy with Sanborn contract, too busy with Credit Mobilier, and Crooked Whiskey, too busy with post-trader ships and tomb stone contracts for the dead soldiers of the war, too busy legislating in the interest of the bondholder and against the laboring masses, and lastly, too busy covering the escape of the guilty Babcocks, Belknap, Bos Shepherds and the like of them to pay any attention to the minor task of reforming the civil service. "Purify from within."

Last of General officers on the federal side during the late war who are now supporting Tilden and Hendricks: Maj. Gen. Geo. B. McClellan, N.Y.; " " W. S. Hancock, Pa.; " " H. W. Slocum, N.Y.; " " Joseph Hooker, N.Y.; " " John A. McClelland, Ill.; " " John M. Palmer, Ill.; " " Frank Sigel, N.Y.; " " Cassius M. Clay, Ky.; " " D. C. Buell, Ky.; " " Tros. L. Crittenden, Ky.; Brig. Gen. Jas. Shields, Mo.; " " John H. Farnsworth, Ill.; " " Thos. Ewing, Ohio; " " M. D. Munson, Ind.; " " T. T. Garrard, Ky.; " " George W. Morgan, Ohio; " " H. B. Banning, Ohio; " " Tuttle, Iowa.

But why enumerate further, when their names are legion? Maj. Generals Meade, Rosecrans, Custer and Blain were Democrats.

Letter From Spring Lick.

SPRING LICK, GRAYSON CO.,
September 4, 1878.

Correspondence of the Herald.
It was the good pleasure of your correspondent to attend the grand festival at Caneyville last Saturday. Excursion trains were run on the L. P. & S. W. R. R. both east and west of Caneyville, for the benefit of those wishing to attend the one of the grandest festivals ever made in the town of Caneyville. The affair had been talked of for weeks before hand. Arrangements had been made a sufficiently long time to make it a success, and a success it was. The object of the festival was to raise funds to build a church in the town of Caneyville, and everybody thought an institution of this kind was much needed in the place, consequently nearly everybody went. The Grayson Springs band was present on the occasion, and discoursed sweet music for those who took a part in tripping the light fantastic.

Spring Lick and Litchfield were largely represented. Among the most prominent from the former place were the Misses Renfrow, Mrs. Raine, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Rowe, and from the latter place, were Hons. W. L. Conklin and W. R. Haynes, T. R. McBeath, Esq., and Ed Thomas, Clerk of the Grayson Circuit Court. There was everything provided necessary to make the occasion one of the most enjoyable of the kind ever had in the county. The committee deserve to be complimented on the handsome entertainment of so large a crowd with no cases of disorder. During the whole day there could not be seen one man who was the least particle intoxicated with liquor. This is, however, easily accounted for when I mention the fact that all the bar-rooms in old and new Caneyville were closed the entire day.

As every dollar spent on this day on the ground where the festival was had would be appropriated for the benefit of the church, the people generally went down pretty deep to get the last nickel. The committee procured two trunks that were indeed handsome, and announced the fact that the young lady who procured the largest number of votes (the same to be rated at 10 cts.) would get first choice of the two trunks, whereupon five young ladies offered themselves as candidates for the prize, and proceeded at once to a vigilant and vigorous canvass. At noon the vote stood about even all around, which fact being known, the friends of each took greater interest in their candidate's election than before. Your correspondent voted till he had no money, and then borrowed of his friends all he could. At five o'clock the candidates were requested to report to the committee for an examination of their vote. The committee, after a critical examination, reported that Miss Wilson was entitled to first choice and her sister second choice. The whole number of votes aggregated for the two trunks the handsome sum of one hundred and ninety-four dollars. I was informed by Mr. D. S. Carroll, one of the managers, that the proceeds taken in from the various sources would be about five hundred dollars, after all expenses were paid.

Of the social aspect of this great gathering, I wish I were able to give some account, but as I have already consumed a good deal of space in your valuable paper, will desist for this time. It may be that I shall take occasion, at some future time, to mention some of the leading features of this successful entertainment. For the benefit of Caneyville, I will say that she did have a large social gathering, and at which there was the best of order kept the entire day.

WEBSTER COUNTY.

Crop Prospect.—Account of an attempted Elopement.

HARTFORD, Sep. 4, 1878.

Editor Herald:
Your correspondent has just returned from a short visit to Dixon, Webster county, and would say, by way of encouragement to all concerned, that the crops in McLean, Hopkins and Webster are excellent. I went through a field of tobacco of 20 acres in McLean county, and I do not think there were a dozen small plants in the field.

Dixon is a small place, but the people are energetic, and possess a large share of the old-fashioned Kentucky kindness and prosperity. I was pleased with the people of the country and with my short stay with them.

While I was in Dixon quite a sensation was created by a little romance, which I will give your readers:

Mr. E. Jones, who keeps the "Jones House," there, has a most beautiful and charming daughter, who entered upon a contract with the County Attorney, F. M. Baker, to quit single life and march out on the smooth waters of married life. The parents of the young lady objected, it became necessary that they should flee in order to carry out their contract, and the fond desire of both. One night last week, while Mr. Jones was absent at Evansville, the devoted couple made their escape, and, in company with three or four young gentlemen and ladies, sped for Illinois. Mrs. Jones, finding that they were gone, got a pistol, mounted a horse, and soon overtook them, and drawing her pistol on them, told them to return to Dixon or die. Not having thought much of the latter, they returned to Dixon in charge of the old lady, who has shown herself brave and unflinching in her devotion to her daughter. I have but this comment to make:—They should be let alone, for they will marry in spite of all opposition. W. H. MAIZEY.

Paragons from Paradise.

The Rev. R. Y. Thomas of Greenville, has just concluded a protracted meeting at this place which is said by the oldest inhabitants to have been the liveliest ever held here. He was assisted by Bro. Cornett of Greenville, and latterly by Mr. McKillop of Air-drie. The combined efforts of these preachers led to some very special manifestations, and resulted in an accession to the church of about twenty members.

Last week we were favored with a visit from Dr. Thos. D. Worrall of Louisville, the representative of the Mississippi Valley Trading Company, who lectured to a very good audience in the school house on the subject of co-operation. At the close of the lecture Dr. Worrall organized a branch of the American Co-operative Union consisting of some of our best citizens, with Dr. King as President. We understand that, during his visit, the Doctor made a very minute inspection of the Air-drie Works, with a view, it is said, of their ultimate development with the aid of foreign capital.

Among the visitors in town this week was Mr. J. H. Coombs of Long View, Christian Co. He reports crop prospects out there as being very good with the exception of tobacco, which is very short.

From the Air-drie Mines, we hear that on Saturday last a barge, laden with about 5,000 bushels of coal, failed to maintain its buoyancy, and disappeared during the night.

We also learn that on Wednesday last, Mr. W. H. Smith, the weighing boss at the tip, while engaged in hooking an empty car at the foot of the incline, got his thumb cut off.

The most important transaction in real estate that we have had for some time is the "swap" by Mr. E. C. Shull of his farm in Ohio County, for Mr. G. H. Vickers' Hotel and Saloon in Paradise. The hotel is, at present, kept by Mr. G. M. Wade, who leaves at Christmas to go on a farm in Ohio county, when "Ras" proposes to show us how the thing ought to be done.

The partnership heretofore existing between Messrs. Jared Brown & Tolbert O. Robinson, in the Grocery and Dry Goods business, has been dissolved by mutual consent, and a division of the spoils made. "Tol" retains the store, and Jared contemplates buying a steamboat or two with his small change.

Rev. R. Y. Thomas proposes to teach a five months school here commencing 2nd October. We hear that the necessary subscription is about made up, and expect in another month that all those rough boys will get straightened out good—unless they wear sheet iron pants!

We were pleased to see the reorganization of the Sunday School last week. The only thing that made us sad was to see Brother Phillip with a blanket round his throat, and to be deprived of the pleasure of listening to his warbling.

Mr. R. E. Glenn has just returned from an extended tour in Muhlenburg, Logan, and Butler counties.

Among the places he visited, with which he is favorably impressed is the town of Lewisburg, in Logan county, on the proposed Owensboro & Russellville R. R. where he stayed some days as the guest of Mr. Yarbrough.

He describes the town as being beautifully located, and the inhabitants as genial and high-toned. The corn crop is splendid; tobacco light, and quality not up to usual standard.

We have just had the pleasure of visiting the farm of Mr. W. D. Coleman, who has just received an addition to his already fine stock in the shape of a full bred Cotswold ram, and two hogs of the small Berkshire breed.

The ram is one year old, weighs 250 lbs, and shed last May twenty pounds of wool. He was sired in England, landed in Canada, the ewes being imported by Mr. Snell, from whom he was bought by Messrs. T. W. Samuels & Sons, of whom Mr. Coleman purchased him for $80. He is a magnificent animal, and ought to be seen by all your readers who are interested in Sheep Husbandry.

The two hogs purchased by Mr. Coleman, one for his son-in-law, Mr. John Sep. Brown, are from imported sows and boars, and cost $20 each. They are 4 months old, and weigh 125 each. Mr. Coleman has also some beautiful specimens of the pure Berkshire of his own raising, one two year old hog weighing 450 lbs, being, we think, the finest specimen in the country.

"What do you sell those fowls for?" inquired a person of a man attempting to dispose of some chickens of a questionable appearance. "I sell them for profits," was the answer. "Thank you for the information that they are profitable," responded the querist, "I took them to be patriarchy."

FINE White Shirts for $1.00, at
L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

THE merchants of our town are receiving unusually large stocks of goods this fall.

THE weather of the past month has produced a great deal of sickness in the county.

IT is now evident that there will be a larger mast this season than has grown for several years.

MISS Nora Johnson, of Daviess county,
is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. P.
Sanderfer, of this place.

BLANKETS, Shawls &c., at
L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

THIS portion of the county was visited by several showers of refreshing rain last week.

THE merry peal of the school bell rang out Monday morning. No more base ball for the small boy.

OUR friend J. E. Fogle, one of the rising young lawyers here, leaves today for the Sebree City Convention.

READ the beautiful poem on our first page by "Rosine" to Mrs. Peyton, on the death of her daughter Maggie.

THERE are several cases of sickness
in town at present, but we hope none of them will prove to be of a serious nature.

CALL at L. Rosenberg & Bro., and look at their Mammoth Stock.

MR. Joseph Moore and wife of Henderson, Ky., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. F. Yager, of our town.

OUR young friend, Wm. Armendt, of this place, left Monday morning for Owensboro, where he expects to study
the profession of dentistry.

MR. W. H. Newcomb, of this county, has a Berkshire pig twenty weeks
old which weighs seventy-eight pounds.
This pig gained fifteen pounds in one week.

JOHN S. NEWCOMB reports another leaf of tobacco this week, which he says measures 31 by 41 inches. "Uncle" Billy Wade will have to come again.

GO and buy your Custom made Clothing for Men, Boys and Youths,
at
L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

THE young ladies and gentlemen of town, that wish to take part in the plays, are requested to meet at the Good Templars Hall, next Friday night.

MISS LYDIA GRIFFIN and Sallie Taylor left our town last week, the former to visit friends in Hawesville, and the latter to visit relatives in Owensboro.

MISS MAGGIE MOSELEY will please accept our thanks for the waiter of luscious grapes sent us last week for our illness. We can assure the fair donor that they were highly appreciated.

NOW is your time to buy bargains
in Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Notions and Trimmings,
L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

DON'T fail to read the advertisement of E. Small's, and when you have read it be sure and go to the Trade Palace and examine the largest, nicest
and the cheapest stock of goods ever brought to Ohio county.

THE St. Cloud Hotel, Louisville, Ky., is one of the best Hotels in the State. It has been rebuilt and remodeled within the last year, and has been thoroughly renovated. The proprietor and clerks are polite and obliging to their guests. Give them a call. See advertisement in this issue.

Largest Apple of the Season.

We were presented with an apple,
which was grown on the farm of Mr.
B. C. Warden, living in this county,
2 1/2 miles from Rockport, which measures 1 1/2 inches belt measure, equaling 4 1/2 inches in diameter. He says it is called the "twenty ounce apple."
Who can beat it.

MR. WICKLIFFE CHAPMAN, formerly editor and proprietor of the Elizabethtown News, was in town this week visiting his brother, Mr. W. C. Chapman. Mr. C. informs us that he has sold his office to Mr. H. M. McCarty, of Louisville Ky.

THE piece on our first page by Mrs.
Jones, was written last fall just after a trip to the Louisville Exposition, and published in our Hartford club paper, and we now publish it by request of several of those who heard it read at the club meeting.

OUR old typographical friend, Alex.
Cummins, who is now pushing his fortune among the tobacco plants, informs us that he has a setter dog that regularly takes his row every day, pulling off and killing the larger worms. The small ones he has an utter contempt for, leaving them for his human co-laborers.

MR. A. H. ROUSE, living near Elm Lick Station, brought to our office, on Monday morning, an insect termed the "mammoth worm." It is of a greenish color, and about six inches long; has fourteen legs and eight horns.
It is pronounced by Dr. J. T. Miller to be very poisonous. The worm is on exhibition at this office.

Republican Meetings.

THERE will be a Republican meeting and flag raising at Crowell, on Saturday next. Speeches will be made by J. Z. Moore and E. C. Hubbard, clerks for the district.

THERE will also be a meeting at Bishop's school house near Carlvo,
on Friday evening next at 7 o'clock, at which place Mr. J. Z. Moore will address the people.

MR. J. R. EDWARDS, living above town, presented us with two dwarf pears which are the largest we have seen this year, measuring eleven inches around.
Mr. Edwards took a premium three or four years ago on pears from this same tree at our county fair.

DR. BEDFORD, Dentist, Louisville, Ky., has an advertisement in this week's paper. The Dr. has the reputation of being one of the best dentists in Ky. All work receives prompt attention. Charges reasonable, and he guarantees satisfaction.
Louisville is very easily reached, and our people could not do better than call on Dr. Bedford for any dental work they may need.

READ Mr. Charles Hipsley's card
in this issue. Our Republican friends are in a quandary. If they fail to recognize the colored voter as a man and brother, they will lose him as a voter. If they do so recognize him and give him important positions in the party, they will lose some of their best and most faithful members.

THE Convention here last Saturday was largely attended, and instructed for Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie, unanimously. His nomination is secured beyond question, and he will get a rousing majority in November.

THE proceedings were not handed into us in time to publish this week,
which we very much regret.

THE Hon. I. A. Spalding carried Union county by a vote of 633, to 6
for Mr. McKenzie. This shows that Mr. McKenzie had a competitor worthy of his steel, and his nomination over Mr. Spalding is as high a compliment as could have been paid him.

DO not forget the public speaking at the Barbecue, next Saturday, at No.
Creek bridge, 3 miles North of Hartford. Hons. J. Z. Moore and E. C.
Hubbard will not be there; but the Republicans will be represented by Hon.
O. P. Johnson; and the Democrats, by Prof. W. B. Hayward, Hon. W. R.
Haynes and others. Turn out everybody, and let's have a gay old time.

MARRIED.—In Evansville, Ind., in King's M. E. Church, Aug. 23, 1876, at 8 o'clock, p. m., Mr. J. W.
Poyner, of Beaver Dam, Ky., to Miss Alice McGraw. They arrived at Beaver Dam, on 25. We wish them a happy and joyous life.

Rally Round The Flag.

JOHN A. Dickinson, Sixth Street,
between Main and Market, Louisville, Ky., keeps a large assortment of all kinds of Flags. We have the pleasure of an acquaintance with Mr. D., and can cheerfully recommend him to the public as a worthy gentleman in every particular. He can furnish any kind of a flag desired, at a fair price. See advertisement in this issue.

Express Robber Caught.

ESAU Shelton, one of the three brothers who robbed the Express office at Riley's Station, last April, has been arrested, and was carried to Calhoun last Monday. He was arrested by Detective P. W. Connel, of Memphis, the same man who arrested the other one, near Sneedville, Tenn. Connel says the other one had as well come in and give himself up, as the Southern Express Company will catch him if it takes ten years, and costs ten thousand dollars to do it.

THE Grand Republican Rally here last Monday, was a success so far as numbers were concerned, there being an immense turn out. The flag was hoisted and Hon. E. C. Hubbard delivered the oration, after which Hon.
J. Z. Moore and Hon. John Feland, addressed a large audience at the courthouse. We were so busily engaged that we did not get to hear the speeches, but understand that Mr. Moore fought all the battles of the late war over again. The short speech of Mr. Feland, is spoken of as a very mild, fair and liberal one with no bloody shirt or sectional bitterness in it.

A Little Girl Drowned.

A little daughter of Mr. Ed.
James, living in the Point Pleasant neighborhood, was playing in a boat on Rough creek last Friday, when she fell from the boat into the water and there being no one present but her little sister, was instantly drowned. Parents should be careful how they allow their children to go about creeks.

Good Templars' Convention.

THE convention of I. O. G. T. will meet with Newton Lodge, No. 410, on 27 and 28 of October, 1876. All Good Templars are invited to attend.

County Grange Meeting.

THE Ohio County Grange, No. 65, will meet on the first Monday in November, 1876, at Beaver Dam, 10 o'clock a. m. The Masters of subordinate granges are hereby notified to meet at the same time and place, to elect representatives to the State Grange.

BUFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KY.,

Sept. 2nd, 1876.

Editor Herald:

I see in your paper that I am appointed Chairman of the committee in Bell's district, by the Republican Convention. I want it well understood that I will not serve as chairman of that committee, or any other where a negro is appointed to serve on the same committee. CHARLES HIPSLEY.

The Sultry Days of Summer.

HOT weather is very exhausting upon the energies, and its influence renders the system peculiarly liable to disease.
During the close and sultry days of July and August, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Colic, and pains in the stomach are common and fatal diseases. It is not enough to trust to a curative when attacked, for it is essential to take proper measures for their prevention. An unflinching prevention of all summer complaints
exists in DR. RADCLIFF'S SEVEN SEALS OR GOLDEN WONDER; and this standard and vegetable preparation is no less efficacious as a cure. Thousands have used it for all diseases incident to the summer solstice, and always with the happiest results. Complete cures are effected in the worst cases.

In Memoriam.

THERE are times in the history of our lives when all are made to feel sad.
Such an occasion occurred in our little town the evening of August 26, 1876. News reached us that Miss Florence Stevens was dead; her soul had winged its flight to the God who gave it. A death-like calmness pervaded the entire community; all who knew Florence loved her, not an enemy had she in the world, and no one had thought of such an angelic spirit being called away.

THE ways of Providence are mysterious, and we must believe that all He does is done in wisdom, but why the ones who are capacitated to wield so great an influence in this life, should be called away, is beyond conception.
It had been our privilege to enjoy the society of our friend Florence for a few years—she was ever the same, kind, considerate, young lady.
To meet her alone or around the family circle, she was ever courteous and polite.

She loved her parents and brothers,
with a true daughter's and sister's affection. I was with her during her last illness—through the lonely vigils of the many nights, watched her feverish brow, there was ever upon her countenance a smile of contentment:
"We watched her breathing through the night,
Her breathing soft and low,
As in her breast the wave of life
Kept heaving to and fro."
While in her delicious state she often called the names of her numbered friends, and at intervals seemed to recognize them.

Just before she died she called the family around her and kissed them

Good-Bye.

Florence is no more, she is done
with the trying realities of this life,
over us we know her guardian angelic
spirit hovers, it bids us look upward, and we feel a consciousness within,
that on another shore bright, tropical flowers by us will be gathered, and forever around the throne of God will we live together, though for a wise purpose
He hath separated us here.

Beaver Dam, Sep. 3rd, 1876.

An Impromptu to that Flag Raised

by the Republicans last Monday.

All hail! all hail! to that banner that floats in the breeze, It's for Hayes and for Wheeler, and whatever else you please;
For Babcock and Belknap, the black bayonet brigade,
And the worst rogues and rascals God
ever made.

As the last hope it flutters the red bloody
That true honest men it can never divert
For Reform and Tilden are coming with a flood,
That will sweep off the bay-forks, and
wipe out the blood;
And then Mother Hubbard, who has bought him some bread,
Will wake in the morning and find his dog dead.

MESSRS. THOMAS HLER and Jesse Shacklet, living in this county, have brought us samples of large tobacco.
The samples of the former measured 38 by 29, and the latter, 24 by 34 inches.

Give Your Name.

WE must again request persons who send us communications to give us their true name. Every week we receive communications without any name. We will publish any fictitious name you may send us, but we want your real name, as an evidence of good faith. All communications received not signed by some responsible party, will go to the waste basket certain. We never will publish any communications without knowing the real name of the writer.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

AN old physician, retired from active practice, having placed in his hands by an East India Missionary the formula of a simple Vegetable Remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a Positive and Radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a conscientious desire to relieve human suffering, he will send (free of charge) to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and successfully using. Sent by return mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper.

Try it—And You will Always use

Wood's Improved.

WOOD'S IMPROVED HAIR RESTOR-ATIVE is unlike any other, and has no equal. The Improved has new vegetable tonic properties; restores grey hair to glossy, natural color; restores dresses, gives vigor to the hair; restores hair to prematurely bald heads; removes dandruff, humors, scaly eruptions;
removes irritation, itching and scaly dryness. No article produces such wonderful effects. Try it, call for Wood's Improved Hair Restorative,
and don't be put off with any other article.
Sold by all druggists in this place and dealers everywhere. Trade supplied at manufacturer's prices by C. A. Cook & Co., Chicago, sole agents for the United States and Canada, and by John D. Park, Cincinnati.

Notice.

All notes and accounts due me, that are not paid by the first of November next, will be put out for collection.

Grand Barbecue.

THERE will be a Grand Barbecue at the No Creek bridge, three miles north of Hartford, on the Owensboro road,
on Saturday, the 9th day of September, 1876. A splendid dinner, excellent music and a good place for dancing will be promised. The Presidential electors are all invited, and are expected to speak on the occasion.

Moral Litterness.

Small people (speaking in a moral view) haven't even soul enough to cry; but they can fret and whine enough to make up for it. As to wishing the smallest amount of happiness to any fellow creature, it is out of the question. They never have a generous impulse, and are never glad. They can't hope, for their hearts are too small for that. They seem to have come into the world during one of those cold, bleak, gloomy days, when there was no wood to make a fire, when the cows were all dry, and when there was nothing to make tea with but dogwood berries and crab apples. They grow up in this same cold, bleak atmosphere, and live in it all their lives. You see their smallness in everything they do or say. You see it in their buying and in their selling, in their talk and in their actions. They are the frogs that constitute one of the plagues of society. They are certainly very much to be pitied. They can't look back and see a single green spot in their lives. They have not made one heart glad, or shed one ray of sunshine upon man, woman or child. Thus they are born, live and die, and as soon as the grave closes over them they are forgotten. —(Western Tobacco Journal.)

Thought It Was a Tunnel.

A young couple boarded the north-bound Kentucky express at Boston last evening (says the Cincinnati Enquirer.) It was at once observed by the passengers that they were "some spoons." The young man evidently was acquainted with the road, for as the train approached the tunnel about ten back of Covington, he prepared for business. Just before the road reaches the tunnel, however, it passes through a short, dark bridge. As the train shot into bridge the young man, not to miss an inch more of the supposed opportunity than he could help, threw his arms around the girl's waist and proceeded to spread his mouth all over hers. Just as he got properly adjusted and secured a moderate suction power about the girl's sweet mouth, and was tightening his grip around her shoulders till the bones fairly snapped, the train as suddenly whizzed into daylight as the moment before it rumbled into darkness. The young man dropped the girl as if she were poison. To aggravate matters still more, after they did get into the tunnel, some one touched up a green light and nipped another embrace just about half way.

How They Married in '76.

A hundred years ago a Virginia belle was not to be won without fools cap and red tape. This was the certificate which the bride had to sign before her lover could get a marriage license: "The bearer hereof has my permission to procure from authority the necessary credentials, which shall duly and honorably merit my attention in the support of my affections, to continue through the end of all things, which shall reflect every ray of honor ascribable to so resplendent an element or sentiment of my right mind, and which shall henceforth be strictly adhered to the proper form, at my instance and his importunity, in the making valid all things pertaining to the stream of my desire to become his partner in the vigor of my youth, in the morning of affections, properly directed to the momentous obligation of conjugal embraces in endless felicity. In witness to the above I have hereunto, etc., etc."

Influence.

We are touching our fellow beings on all sides. They are effected for good or evil by what we are, by what we say and do, even by what we think and feel. May flowers in the parlor breathe their fragrance through the atmosphere. We are each of us silently saturating the atmosphere about us with the subtle aroma of our character. In the family circle, besides and beyond all our teaching, the daily life of each parent and child mysteriously modifies the life of every person of the house. The same process, on a wider scale, is going on through the community. No man liveth to himself. Others are built up and strengthened by their unconscious words; and others may be wrenched out of their places and thrown down by our unconscious influence.

"Do birds," asks a magazine writer, "die a natural death?" We know of many who have probably died in that way. We shot at them, anyhow.

A CHAP was arrested in Philadelphia the other day for stealing a clock. The Judge told him that as he had taken another man's time to begin with, he could now take his own time to reflect upon it, and sent him up for three months forthwith.
